

Ingeborg Wahl, 88

2-5-94

Ingeborg Wahl, 88, Groton, died at Colonial Manor, Groton, Thursday, Jan. 27, 1994.

Her funeral was held at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Ferney, Monday, Jan. 31, 1994, with the Rev. Dwaine Doremus officiating. Burial was in the Andover Cemetery. A prayer service was held Sunday, Jan. 30 at the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton.

Ingeborg Hustel was born June 30, 1905 in Norway township, rural Veblen, S.D., to John and Mathilda (Hanson) Hustel. She attended grade school in Veblen, and attended Britton High School.

She married Herman Wahl Sr., April 25, 1922 at Webster, S.D. They lived at Forman, N.D., Lingby, Minn., and Bristol, S.D. They had farms in Scotland, Bates, and West Hanson townships. She had lived at Colonial Manor, Groton, since June 1993. She was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Ferney, since April 9, 1961, and the church Altar Circle.

She is survived by one son, Herman Wahl Jr., Groton; five daughters, Mrs. Fern Vogel and Mrs. Leroy (Jean) Thurston, both of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Beverly Kolb, Aberdeen; Mrs. Julius (Gay) Kolb, Groton, and Mrs. Miron (Iris) Fisk Sr., Conde; one brother, Sherman Hustel, Veblen; 21 grandchildren, 48 great grandchildren, and 11 great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husbands, one daughter, one son, four grandchildren, four brothers and four sisters.

Casketbearers were her grandsons, Dana Kolb, Terry Kolb, Randy Kolb, David Kolb, Miron Fisk Jr., and William Vogel. Honorary casketbearers were all of her grandchildren.

Organist was Susan Ellingson and there was a duet by Loren and Pat Siefken. Ushers were Todd Morton and Allan Kroll.